INSTRUCTOR

JOHN HOCK

Detective Hock currently works at a large department in the Dallas, Texas area and is responsible for uncovering and supplying real time, actionable intelligence to field operations personnel by using social media platforms, law enforcement databases and open source intelligence gathering tools. He is a highly commended officer in the use of “out of the box” techniques to safely apprehend and successfully prosecute criminals. He has been sought after by numerous local, state and federal agencies to assist with high profile investigations using social media and open source methods.
