DEPARTMENT AND CONDUCT

A student's behavior reflects directly on the Academy and their employer. Students must conduct themselves in a manner that does not discredit themselves, the Academy, or their own agency. Failure to maintain this standard may result in supervisory intervention, notification to the employing agency, and/or dismissal from the Academy.

Students re-admitted to the Academy may be required to repeat the Academy, in whole or in part, as determined necessary by the Manager of Corrections Academies. A student may be suspended during an investigation for any rules violations. The student is responsible to obtain all materials related to any class presentations missed due to this suspension.

ILLNESS

6. Non-academy related injury: Injury incurred before/after Academy hours requires the student to have a physician complete the WSCJTC Injury Report #652 [PHYSICIAN'S STATEMENT section report] authorizing full participation upon re-entry into the Academy. The student can select his/her own physician. Cost incurred from this evaluation is the responsibility of the student.

Repeated minor violations may result in a conduct review and disciplinary meeting with the student, TAC Officer and the Corrections Program Manager. If, upon conclusion of the investigation, the Corrections Program Manager elects any disciplinary action other than termination, such action will be imposed after advisement to the student's employer, Corrections Division Manager, Deputy Director and/or the Training Commission's Executive Director.

If, based upon the investigation, the Manager believes it is necessary and appropriate to terminate the student's training assignment, a copy of the investigative report and a written recommendation for termination will be forwarded to the Deputy Director and Executive Director for review and final determination.
