

3rd Annual Domestic Violence Symposium
Learning to Listen, Listening to Learn:
Improving Domestic Violence Response

A collaborative symposium for prosecution, law enforcement, civil law attorneys, advocates, judges, scholars, law students, social workers, corrections, batterer intervention providers and others in the field.

SAVE THE DATES:
September 8 & 9, 2011
Seattle University, Seattle WA

We are pleased to offer a unique opportunity to hear and interact with nationally recognized experts on Witness Intimidation, Working with Survivors, Abuses and Uses of Technology, Domestic Violence in Diverse Populations, and Children Exposed to DV.

Featured Speakers:

Dean Deborah Epstein – Listening to DV Survivors - Georgetown University DV Law Clinic

Jeffrey Greipp, Esq. - Witness Intimidation, Stalking and Technology - AEquitas Training Center

Prof. Amy Bonomi, Ph.D. – Inmate Telephone Calls to DV Survivors and Other Research – Ohio State University

Marnee Milner, J.D., Ph.D. – Parenting Plans and Children Exposed to DV – Forensic and Clinical Psychologist

Chief Randall Carroll (ret.) - Investigative Interviewing and Law Enforcement Responses to DV- Profectus Consulting

K & L Gates Electronic Evidence Experts - Using Electronic Evidence and Forensic Techniques

Legal Responses to Immigrant DV Survivors -- moderated by Prof. Jane Stoever --
Seattle University School of Law

Symposium Hosts & Sponsors:

Seattle University School of Law
City of Seattle Department of Community and Human Services
King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office
King County DV and Child Maltreatment Coordinated Response Project
Washington State Gender & Justice Commission STOP Grant
King County STOP Grant

Agenda will be available and on-line registration will open in the Summer 2011.

Questions about programming should be directed to Tracy.Orcutt@kingcounty.gov or Deborah.Greenleaf@kingcounty.gov. Site information for Seattle University is available through Rebecca Parker-O'Neill at parkerr@seattleu.edu.