

Fife Police Department Reserve Program

The Fife Police Department is currently accepting applications for RESERVE POLICE OFFICER. Fife Police Department will be testing for reserves in near the middle of October to prepare for a January 2014 academy. The academy will be run through the Fife Police Department. This is a volunteer, non-paid, position. Reserve Officers are used to supplement patrol operations and special events within the City of Fife as well as further support our community policing needs and goals. Serving as a Reserve Police Officer is a rewarding experience and excellent way to serve the community. It is also an excellent way to gain experience and training. Many of the full-time City of Fife Police Officer's started their careers as Reserve Police Officers including the Chief of Police. Applicants must be 21 years of age, possess a valid Washington State driver's license, have a high school diploma or G.E.D, and must be able to successfully complete a full background check. Reserve Officers serve at the discretion of the Chief of Police and are not part of the Fife Police Guild.
