The Director provides leadership and strategic vision for all operations of The Evergreen State College Police Services Department in order to advance a safer, more secure, and welcoming environment. The Director is responsible for the design, execution, and effectiveness of a system of internal controls which provides reasonable assurance that department operations are comprehensive, effective, and efficient; consistent with community policing philosophy; college facilities and assets are safeguarded; and the department is in compliance with applicable laws, regulations, policies, and procedures. The Director serves as an institutional leader in identifying, translating, and applying best practices in public safety, emergency response, crisis intervention, and parking services to serve the unique needs, culture, and environment of The Evergreen State College.

There is currently one full-time, overtime-exempt Director of Police Services position available on the Olympia campus of The Evergreen State College. This is an "at-will" appointment, exempt from Washington State Civil Service rules and the Fair Labor Standards Act overtime requirements. The incumbent has arrest powers and is required to be commissioned law officer under the regulations of the State. The candidate pool established from this announcement may be used to fill comparable permanent, full-time, part-time, and temporary vacancies in the future.

Revised Salary: Minimum salary starts at $7,923 per month of full time work + excellent benefits including paid sick and vacation leave; paid campus holidays; a generous medical, dental, life and disability insurance package; and a tuition waiver program. Experience and training may be considered in salary placement.

Retirees are encouraged to apply. WSP and LEOFF retirees, please contact Department of Retirement Services or Human Resource Services for questions regarding possible impact to your current pension.

Closes: June 20, 2016 at 5:00 p.m. PST
