Deputy Marshal Job Description

Department ::	Police
Reports To :	Town Marshal
Supervises :	None
Definition :	Non-exempt position providing law enforcement services.

Essential Duties:

The Deputy Marshal's job is a hands-on position in a small police department which requires the ability to cooperate and coordinate with other officers and reservists while performing routine on-the-street police procedures. The ability to communicate both verbally and in writing and to develop and maintain good relationships with members of the community, from the very young to the very old, is essential. The Deputy Marshal also must possess up to date skills in police procedures.

The position involves the responsibility for the protection of lives and property and the prevention of crime in the town through all police functions. Work involves seeing that order is maintained and that laws and ordinances are enforced. In general, the Deputy Marshal is responsible for efficient, practical and competent law enforcement within the community.

Required Knowledge, Skills And Abilities

- Thorough knowledge of the technical phases of crime prevention, law enforcement, rules of evidence and such related functions such as investigation, patrol, traffic control and safety, criminal identification, record keeping and the care and custody of prisoners.
- Thorough knowledge of the rules, regulations and procedures of the Police Department.
- Thorough knowledge of municipal, state, and federal criminal and related laws, ordinances and codes of the powers and limitations of peace officers.
- Thorough knowledge of the behavior of criminals and causes underlying criminality.
- Ability to establish and maintain effective and cooperative relationships with other town officials, state, federal, and county authorities, civic leaders and the general public.
- Ability to prepare technical reports.
- Ability to analyze complex police problems and to adopt quick, effective and reasonable courses of action with due regard to surrounding hazards and circumstances.
- Ability to command the respect of fellow officers and others.

Minimum Qualifications:

Must be a citizen of the United States, be able to read and write the English language, have a valid Washington State Driver's license and must at a minimum be a high school graduate or possess a General Equivalency Degree. Must be able to pass the Washington State Law Enforcement Training Academy, or be able to pass the Washington State Equivalency Exam within one year of the date of employment.

Knowledge of criminal law investigation and crime prevention methods and techniques; knowledge of the rules of evidence and the laws governing the custody of persons; knowledge of the technical aspects of records systems, office procedures and photography; knowledge in human relations; knowledge of accepted practices and procedures in modern police work.

Ability to analyze complex law enforcement problems and situations and to adopt quick, effective and reasonable courses of action, with due regard to surrounding hazards and circumstances; ability to make thorough investigations and prepare accurate and comprehensive reports; ability to express ideas clearly and concisely, orally and in writing, to groups and individuals; ability to establish and maintain effective, cooperative working relationships with officials, civic, school and business groups and the general public; must conform with any other criteria which is required by this position.

Must be of good moral character, and of temperate and industrious habits; be of a disposition suitable for law enforcement duties and be in excellent health; have normal vision and hearing with no disqualifying physical defects. (Health Standards -- LEOFF Retirement System). Must conform with any other criteria required by the Coupeville Civil Service Commission Rules and Regulations for this position.

Working Conditions:
