WAC 388-76-10825 Space heaters and stoves. The adult family home must ensure:

- (1) The following space heaters are not used in a home except during a power outage and the portable heater is only safe source of heat:
(d) Electric.

This requirement was not met as evidenced by:

Based on observation and interview, the provider failed to maintain the adult family home premises free of hazards when an electric space heater was observed in Resident #2's room. Failure of the adult family home to protect the resident from coming in contact with a space heater, placed the resident at risk of potential harm with direct contact with the heater and/or at risk of a home fire.

Findings include:

Observation and interviews were conducted on 4/21/2016, unless otherwise noted.

During a tour of the adult family home, one electric space heater was observed in Resident #2's room. The heater had the appearance of a fireplace and was plugged into the wall.

The provider said the resident loved the look of the heater and it helped her stay warm. The resident did not remember how long the space heater had been in her room. The thermostat in the home registered a temperature of 72 degrees Farenheight which met the state requirement.
