IMPOSITION OF CIVIL FINES

Dear Licensee:

On June 3, 2021, the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS), Residential Care Services completed a follow-up inspection at your facility. This letter is formal notice of the imposition of civil fines on the license for your adult family home, located at 6115 East Drive, Everett, by the State of Washington, Department of Social and Health Services, pursuant to the Revised Code of Washington (RCW) 70.128.160 and Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 388-76-10940.

The civil fines are based on the following violations of the RCW and/or WAC determined by the department in your adult family home and described in the attached Statement of Deficiencies (SOD) report dated June 3, 2021.

Civil Fines

WAC 388-76-10255(1) Infection control. $500.00

The adult family home (AFH) provider failed to screen all visitors for COVID-19, perform routine cleaning and disinfect high touch areas of the AFH. This failure placed all residents in the AFH at risk for exposure to infectious disease.

WAC 388-76-10485(1) Medication storage. $200.00

The adult family home (AFH) provider failed to ensure all medications in the home were stored securely for a resident. This failure placed the resident at risk for harm by accessing medications not prescribed for them.

NOTICE: State and federal law provide protections to defendants who are in military service, and to their dependents. Dependents of a service member are the service member's spouse, the service member's minor child, or an individual for whom the service member provided more than one-half of the individual's support for one hundred eight days immediately preceding an application for relief.

One protection provided is the protection against the entry of a default judgment in certain circumstances. This notice pertains only to a defendant who is a dependent of a member of the National Guard or a military reserve component under a call to active service, or a National Guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, for a period of more than thirty consecutive days. Other defendants in military service also have protections against default judgments not covered by this notice. If you are the dependent of a member of the national guard or a military reserve component under a call to active service, or a national guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, for a period of more than thirty consecutive days, you should notify the Department in writing of your status as such within twenty days of the receipt of this notice. If you fail to do so, then a court or an administrative tribunal may presume that you are not a dependent of an active duty member of the national guard or reserves, or a national guard member under a call to service authorized by the governor of the state of Washington, and proceed with the entry of an order of default and/or a default judgment without further proof of your status. Your response to the Department about your status does not constitute an appearance for jurisdictional purposes in any pending litigation nor a waiver of your rights.

If you have any questions, please contact Shelly Scarboro, Field Manager, at (360) 651-6872.

Sincerely,

Amanda Jackson
