

Low Carbon Energy Project Siting Improvement Study

Advisory Board Meeting

Pre-Application Phase Resources

February 9, 2022

Online Permitting Assistance System

Online Permitting Assistance System: A tool to help determine which environmental permits might be needed for a project in Washington.

Questionnaire - Step 3

Location → Categories → Questions → Results

Please answer the following Questions

Agricultural Products

1. Are you labeling seed for distribution for sale in this state?	Yes <input type="radio"/>	No <input checked="" type="radio"/>	Don't Know <input type="radio"/>
2. Are you a producer selling, labeling, or representing crops or livestock products as "organic" or wishing to do so?	Yes <input type="radio"/>	No <input checked="" type="radio"/>	Don't Know <input type="radio"/>
3. Is your processing facility selling, labeling, or representing processed products as "organic," or do you wish to?	Yes <input type="radio"/>	No <input checked="" type="radio"/>	Don't Know <input type="radio"/>
4. Does your business sell or hold live plants or turf for planting, breeding or decoration or perform landscaping and lawn maintenance which provides planting or installing new plants or turf?	Yes <input checked="" type="radio"/>	No <input type="radio"/>	Don't Know <input type="radio"/>
5. Does your facility handle or process any food in any manner for sale or distribution and consumption by another party?	Yes <input checked="" type="radio"/>	No <input type="radio"/>	Don't Know <input type="radio"/>

Permit Timeliness

- The state does track the time it takes to submit, review, and make decisions on permit applications.
- ORIA works in partnership with fourteen regulatory agencies on permit timeliness, including many Low Carbon Energy Project Siting Improvement Study Interagency Policy Team members.
- Regulatory agencies evaluate the customer experience to understand permit processing better and make improvements.

Thank you

Shanelle Pierce

Managing Director of Regulatory Services

(360) 688-4274

Kelly Craig

Regulatory Consultant

(360) 742-9764

