Purpose: Low Carbon Energy Project Siting Improvement Study
Date: June 23, 2022
9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Objectives:
- Provide perspectives and opportunities for improving consultation and engagement with Tribes.
- Provide perspectives and opportunities for addressing systemic environmental justice issues related to low carbon energy projects.
- Provide perspectives and opportunities for improving community engagement.
- Review process for recommendation development.

Agenda:
9:00 Presentations
- Tribal Consultation in Washington, Dr. Allyson Brooks, Department of Archeology and Historic Preservation
- HEAL Act, Rowena Pineda, Department of Health
- Environmental Justice at Ecology, Megan MacClellan, Ecology
- Q&A/Discussion

10:30 Break

10:45 Update on recommendations development and process

11:45 Updates on committees, work groups, other related work

11:55 Next steps

| ACTION ITEMS |
|---------------|-----------------|-----------------|
| Responsible   | Action          | Start Date | Due Date |
| None          |                 |             |          |