SUPER-9 BACCARAT

COPYRIGHT 2010 Warren Montney 509-308-4173 warren@texas21.com

Super-9 Baccarat is a Bonus Wager for Mini-Baccarat the Mini-Baccarat portion of the game may be dealt by current WSGC approved rules provided that,

- Eight standard 52 card decks of cards are used if using the progressive jackpot .
- If the progressive jackpot is not used the house may use more or fewer than 8 standard decks however the math analysis is based on an 8 deck shoe .

There are 3 Bonus Wager for Super-9 Baccarat . Player-9, Dealer-9, and the progressive jackpot . You may put all 3 of these wagers on the layout, or any combination.

Provided that the player may not play more than 3 bets, plus the jackpot bet. In addition to the above wagers Mini-Baccarat traditionally has a bonus called the tie . If the tie is left on your felt that is included in the 3 bet plus jackpot limit.

Example: A player betting on the banker may also bet the player-9 , dealer-9 & jackpot bets, but they may not bet the tie as they would have placed 4 bets plus the jackpot.

House rules may allow a player to play and the Player-9 or Banker-9 ,or tie but not require the player to play the traditional main bet of player or banker. If this is done the player may then play the player-9 banker-9 Tie and jackpot , provided they have not placed a bet on Player or banker. Players wishing to play the Jackpot must play the main bet or if allowed without the main bet Player-9 or Banker-9 or Tie. The house may allow players to bet more on the Player-9 Banker-9 than the main wager, or not allow it.

The house may not apply an aggregate limit to dealer-9 or player-9 Bonus Wager , but they may have different betting maximums than on the main player/banker bets. The minimum bet for player-9 and banker-9 Bonus Wager is 1$ if the player is playing the main baccarat bet. If You allow players to play them without the main bet you may require them to play the table minimum on one of the bets. All betting limits must comply with WSGC rules

Example: If the table minimum is $5 and you allow a player to play the Player-9 or Banker-9 without the main bet being played the player may be required to play 5$ on one of the bets but may play 1$ on the other.

DEALING PROCEDURES

The mini-baccarat portion of the game is dealt by any WSGC approved rules. The Bonus Wagers are resolved in turn at the same time as the players main bet. If the player is not playing the main bet they are resolved in turn as if the player had a main bet . Any irregularities must be handled by the house policy which must comply with WSGC rules Players may not side-bet on another players hand.

PROGRESSIVE JACKPOT

The progressive jackpot is a 1$ Progressive Wager. The house may allow it to be played alone, or require the main bet or one of the remaining Bonus Wagers to be played in order to bet on the progressive. All progressive jackpot payouts listed are “for-1” meaning the players progressive bet is taken by the house even if the player wins. The Progressive is seeded with $2500 by the house The house may not recover this money before raising the jackpot amount as seed monies are built into the house edge.

You may use any third party progressive system approved by the WSGC or place a second drop box on the table for progressive wagers. For every 1$ dropped the house will add a minimum of .20 cents to the progressive jackpot.

If you are not using a third party progressive system for the Progressive you must conspicuously post the jackpot amount on the table. The jackpot must be updated daily before opening the table for play . Aggregate limits do not apply to jackpot payouts listed as “for-1”. The top jackpot is limited to what is posted. If the top jackpot hits all players who have a progressive bet will share equally in the progressive jackpot. The formula for this is number of hands playing jackpot, divided by jackpot amount equals per hand payout. A $90,000 jackpot hit with 9 players playing the jackpot will pay each player $10,000.
